Get READY, Get SET, GO GRIZZLIES!

Ready or not... the school year is here! We have had a wonderful and productive week with our faculty and staff preparing for next Tuesday's First Day of School! Here are some of the highlights:

- Monday was our Sixth Grade Leadership Day- Students gathered together to learn how to work together, set goals, and walk through their schedule.
- Tuesday our teachers gathered for Eucharistic Adoration, team building activities, and an introduction to a book study.
- Wednesday our Kindergarten to 5th Grade Teams participated in an in-service day dedicated to our Fountas and Pinnell reading program. Junior High and Related Arts teachers had meetings on various topics including Campus Ministry and preparation for our Junior High Elective Program.
- Thursday our teachers readied their classrooms, participated ActivPanel training, and New Staff Orientation among other impactful meetings. See pictures below of the busy productive week!

Please note that earlier today at 1pm, we conducted a Communications Test. You should have received a SMORE, Text, Email, and Voicemail. Please contact the school office if one or all of those is missing.
